WISDOM

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it.

Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 [13-14]).

Gospel — Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matthew 25:1-13).

I Can Do Anything

I have started houses with no more than the price of a loaf of bread and prayers, for with Him who comforts me, I can do anything.

-Angel Tree-

We are collecting new and used books for children under twelve for the Angel Tree. If you can help, please bring them to the office.

Thank you!!

Attention!!!

Anyone wanting to bring in a food bag for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Thanksgiving Offering needs to do so on Monday!!!

At the request of Bishop Kihneman, we are once again participating in the IGIVECATHOLIC program, which is the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. We will be providing you with information through the bulletin regarding this opportunity for our parish over the next month.
