REJOICE AND BE GLAD

During the first three or four centuries of Christianity, if you asked a Christian to name the feast days of the church, your answer would have been a puzzled stare, for there was only one feast: the Resurrection of the Lord. Every Sunday was a feast celebrating the one great feast. Even though our calendar now has many beautiful and holy feasts, we must continually be called back to the fact that all these other feasts exist because of the feast of Christ's passover from death to life. The psalm today proclaims this message well: "This is the day." It is not one of many days, but it is the day of all days, the one that gives all the others their origin, purpose, meaning, and destiny. Listen carefully to Peter's speech in Acts with its recollection of the Passion, to the words of the apostle Paul, and to the account of Mary Magdalene, John, and Peter finding the empty tomb, and you will hear the many wonderful works that God has done for us through Christ. Rejoice and be glad!

TODAY'S READINGS:

First Reading – Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).
Psalm – This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).
Second Reading – All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4)
Gospel – Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9)
