AUDACITY

There is a spirit of audacity in our readings today. During a time of injustice and threat of invasion, the prophet Micah boldly announces that the God of insignificant Israel will raise up a leader from backwater Bethlehem, and this leader will bring justice and peace to the whole world. In the Gospel, Elizabeth and Mary, marginalized women, brazenly celebrate that their sons will be world-changing instruments of God. We further learn that this audacity is rooted in trust in God. The author of Hebrews describes the faithful obedience of Jesus. Mary is shown as the exemplar of faithful trust in God. This is the way God often seems to work, in the ordinary and marginalized in our world. Those who seem weak have learned to trust in God's strength. These have the audacity to become instruments of God's peace and justice.

TODAY'S READING

First Reading — From Bethlehem - Ephrathah shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel (Micah 5:1-4a).

Second Reading — We have been consecrated through the offering of the body of Christ once for all (Hebrews 10:5-10).
Gospel — Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken by the Lord would be fulfilled (Luke 1:39-45).

Holy Family Altar Society

would love your help decorating the Church for Christmas.

Please join us on Thursday, December 23rd
at 8:30 am.

For questions, please call Liz Shaw at 228-547-9473.

Missing Rosary

One of our Holy Family Parishioners is missing the special Rosary they left in the basket at the Altar for a blessing by Mary during the visit by Visionary Ivan Dradgicevic on November 21st.

We are asking any one who attended the event and brought items to the Altar for a blessing to please check and see if you mistakenly picked up this Rosary. The Rosary was in a ziploc bag with a light green label attached to the Rosary with the name of the person it belongs to. There was also a light green piece of paper in the ziploc with a special prayer request.

Please call Allison Alarcon at the Church office with any information at 228-452-4686. Thank you.
