GOD'S LOVING CARE

At once they left their nets and followed him.
MAT THEW 4:20

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 22, 2023

Two readings today refer to the northeast region of ancient Israel: “the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtal”. Upon hearing these names, some of us might consult maps and determine exactly where these regions lie. Others might let the unfamiliar names drift by unnoticed. If no maps are handy—but we don’t want to ignore the references completely—consider this: we might not know the latitude and longitude of Zebulun and Naphtali, but God does. We praise God for watching over every inch of land and sea, caring perfectly for each creature on the planet. While Isaiah celebrates the depth of God’s care with “abundant joy and great rejoicing”, Saint Paul begs us to remember how the Lord shows this loving care: through the cross. In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls Peter, James, and John to follow him. We follow too, confident that God accompanies us, wherever we are.

TODAY'S READINGS:

First Reading — The burdens that were once laid upon the people have been vanquished (Isaiah 8:23 – 9:3).
Psalm — The Lord guides and saves me (Psalm 27).
Second Reading — Paul exhorts the believers at Corinth: As there is one Christ, so too must there be no divisions among you. (1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17).
Gospel — After calling his first disciples, Jesus goes throughout Galilee teaching, proclaiming the Gospel, and curing the people (Matthew 4:12-23 [12-17]).

Pray For a Priest Each Day

Lord Jesus, we your people pray to You for our priests. You have given them to us for OUR needs. We pray for them in THEIR needs. We know that You have made them priests in the likeness of your own priesthood. You have consecrated them, set them aside, anointed them, filled them with the Holy Spirit, appointed them to teach, to preach, to minister, to console, to forgive, and to feed us with Your Body and Blood. Indeed, we thank You for choosing them from among us, so that they understand us as we understand them, suffer with us, rejoice with us, worry with us and trust with us, share our beings, our lives, our faith. We ask that You give them this day the gift You gave Your chosen ones on the way to Emmaus: Your presence in their hearts, Your holiness in their souls, Your joy in their spirits. And let them see You face to face in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread. We pray to You, O Lord, through Mary the mother of all priests, for our priests! Amen.

RISE GROUP NEWS

(3-5th Graders)

Fr. Mike has offered the RISE GROUP the proceeds from the little children's offerings on Sundays (that offering brought up by the littlest of our Holy Family members and placed in the Pickle Jar) to be used for projects the RISE Group chooses each month. The projects will center on Corporal Works of Mercy. They will learn how to budget the proceeds to fund their projects and prioritize the needs. This month, the 3rd - 5th graders filled a dozen bags for the homeless, with socks, soap, toothbrushes, Band-Aids, hand sanitizer, combs, snacks, candy, a rosary and holy cards. BEST OF ALL (and so beautifully written!) they wrote the kindest, heartfelt cards to the recipient letting them know we will be praying for them all month long. The items were placed in a gallon zip lock within a decorated gift bag. Ricky Molsbee will distribute the bags in his personal ministry to the homeless. Go RISE Group!!! They are taking Jesus' message of love out into the world. Watch the bulletin for the project they choose for February.
